Special Instructions for Limited Liability Companies Taxed for Income Tax Purposes as Corporation and Professional or Other Associations Taxed for Income Tax Purposes as Corporations.

If your organization is either a limited liability company or an association taxed for income tax purposes as a corporation, some of the terms used in this form may require a reading suited to your organization. As examples:

1. "Corporation" should be interpreted to mean limited liability company or association;
2. "State of incorporation" should be read to mean state of organization;
3. "Shareholders" should be interpreted to mean members;
4. "Director" or "officer" should be interpreted to mean manager or managing member; and
5. "Incorporator" should be read to mean person forming the association or limited liability company.

Sections requesting certain information such as number of shares of stock may not apply to your organization and should be so indicated.

Social Security Privacy Act Disclosure

It is voluntary that you provide the social security number of the individual directors on this tax form. 42 U.S.C 405(c)(2)(C)(i) permits a state to use an individual's social security number as means of identification in administration of any tax. SC Regulation 117-201 mandates that any person required to make a return to the SC Department of Revenue shall provide identifying numbers, as prescribed, for securing proper identification. Your social security number is used for identification purposes.
