General Information

For tax years beginning after December 31, 2006, an income tax credit is available for an individual's property and casualty insurance premiums paid during the tax year in excess of 5% of the taxpayer's adjusted gross income (AGI). The property or casualty insurance must be for the taxpayer's legal residence. The allowable credit for any tax year may not exceed $1,250. Any unused credit may be carried forward for 5 tax years.

Social Security Privacy Act Disclosure

It is mandatory that you provide your social security number on this tax form if you are an individual taxpayer. 42 U.S.C 405(c)(2)(C)(i) permits a state to use an individual's social security number as means of identification in administration of any tax. SC Regulation 117-201 mandates that any person required to make a return to the SC Department of Revenue shall provide identifying numbers, as prescribed, for securing proper identification. Your social security number is used for identification purposes.

The Family Privacy Protection Act

Under the Family Privacy Protection Act, the collection of personal information from citizens by the Department of Revenue is limited to the information necessary for the Department to fulfill its statutory duties. In most instances, once this information is collected by the Department, it is protected by law from public disclosure. In those situations where public disclosure is not prohibited, the Family Privacy Protection Act prevents such information from being used by third parties for commercial solicitation purposes.
