

Unincorporated Richland County Referendum

Re: 7-day Beer and Wine Permit

The voters in unincorporated Richland county have passed referendum to allow the sale of beer and wine at permitted off-premises locations without regard to days and hours of sales in unincorporated Richland county. This is also known as the 7-day beer and wine permit (P7B). The South Carolina Department of Revenue has approved the wording of the referendum and is now accepting applications for the issuance of the seven-day beer and wine permit for those located in unincorporated Richland county. The Department is asking the taxpayer to utilize the below-mentioned information in order to expedite the application for the P7B. The prerequisite for applying for, and submitting the application (along with additional requested items), is that the taxpayer must currently possess a valid, good-standing on/off-premise beer and wine permit also known as a PBG or PBW.
